More Job Opportunities - Creating an innovative workforce in Palestine

REFORM on behalf of Sawa Sawa committee is working to create a knowledgeable, competent, motivated, entrepreneurial and innovative workforce in Palestine, one that provides youth and women with better opportunities for employment and self-income. This newly designed project will build the capacities of youth and women in technical and vocational training, while at the same time providing entrepreneurial skills, thus integrating them into the labor market. The provided workshops will provide the opportunity to network with the private sector, civil society organizations and ministries.

Projects targeted areas are: Ramallah, Bethlehem, Nablus and Jerusalem.

Project's outcomes:

1. Increased awareness and coordination amongst CSOs, PSOs, Ministries of Labour and Education, universities and schools in regards to contributing to the enhancement of capacities of youth and women to reduce the unemployment rate.
2. Youth and women have enhanced capacities to start their own businesses or received salaried employment.
3. Youth are more aware about the current labour market and marketing techniques and able to network with local businesses and other youth.
4. Youth, women and men have a greater understanding of the advantages of technical and vocational education and able to combat their prevailing attitudes towards informal education.
5. The private sector is more able to meet the demand of the market by hiring skilled labour.
